INTRODUCTION / HOST WELCOME

Linda welcomed everyone to the meeting and introduced representatives from Premier Custom Paint, Brett Habig and Eddie Westrick. Brett and Eddie gave a brief tour of the Premier Custom Paint facility and discussed its service offerings.

APRIL MEETING MINUTES

Linda called for the approval of the minutes of the meeting of the Board held on April 9, 2026. Upon motion duly made, seconded and unanimously carried by the members in attendance, the minutes of such meeting were approved.

FINANCIALS

Linda reviewed ARPCA's financials, including key takeaways from the profit and loss statement that was circulated to members at the meeting. Linda shared updates regarding recent reimbursements received from the Porsche Club of America, and she emphasized the importance of sponsor advertising in the Rundschau to the publication's profitability. Amidst discussion about various financial matters, Linda thanked Kevin for his planning of the recent Der Treff event. Following discussion among the members, a motion to accept the financial statements distributed during the meeting was made, seconded and unanimously carried by the members in attendance.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Linda shared with the members in attendance that Coyote Black, a member of ARPCA, will assume the role of managing the social media accounts of the organization. Linda shared that she, Coyote and others are working through the logistics of transitioning the account management privileges of the various ARPCA social media accounts. Discussion ensued among the members in attendance pertaining to the organization's social efforts.

NEW BROCHURES

Linda shared copies of the new brochures printed by Paul Nickoloff, who also coordinates the printing of the Rundschau. These latest brochures are on display at Porsche Pittsburgh, Porsche Sewickley and Deutsche Rennsport. Members are encouraged to display copies at their businesses.

NEW OFFICER

Linda introduced Matt as the newly elected Secretary of ARPCA. Discussion ensued among Matt and the members in attendance.

RUNDSCHAU

Tom G. and Stu presented regarding the current issue of Rundschau. Tom G. and Stu encouraged members who attended Der Treff to submit their photos to be featured in the next issue.

SOCIAL AND ROAD DRIVING-FOCUSED EVENTS

Jay shared the success of this month's Porsche at the Lot event, reporting that over forty (40) cars were in attendance. Jay summarized upcoming ARPCA events, including the next Porsche at the Lot event scheduled to occur on June 6, the next ARPCA monthly meeting scheduled for June 25, the Pittsburgh Vintage Grand Prix event scheduled for July 18-19, and the Porsche day at Pittsburgh Cars and Coffee tentatively scheduled for August 22.

Kevin next shared an update regarding recent and upcoming ARPCA road rallies and other driving-focused events. He highlighted the success of ARPCA's recent Der Treff event (including over sixty (60) cars in attendance) and shared memorabilia from the event with members of ARPCA in attendance. Kevin shared that Justin Flagg will be stepping in to lead the upcoming Nelson Ledges Racetrack driving tour scheduled for June 13. He discussed changes to the itinerary for ARPCA's upcoming Planes, Trains and Automobiles day trip to Northern Ohio, and shared that seventeen (17) ARPCA members have already signed up for this event, which is scheduled for August 15. Kevin previewed for the members additional details regarding the fall events that he is planning, including the Steel City Tour scheduled for September 26 and the Fall Foliage Tour to Narcisi Winery being coordinated with the Audi Club of North America Western Pennsylvania Chapter, scheduled for October 12. Linda encouraged members to consider participating on a committee to assist Kevin with planning these and other driving-focused activities for ARPCA. Discussion ensued among the members in attendance pertaining to the organization's events.

Tom M. next presented updates regarding recent and upcoming Porsche Touring Crew events. He shared that the next events are scheduled for (a) May 26 at Springfield Grille in Youngstown, Ohio, (b) June 23 at The Iron Bridge in Mercer, Pennsylvania, and (c) July 28 at Serventi's on the Runway in Butler, Pennsylvania.

TRACK EVENTS

Drake presented regarding the ARPCA's upcoming track events, including the Nelson Ledges Racetrack driving tour scheduled for June 13 (with over 110 members signed up so far), the Nelson Ledges High Performance Driving Event scheduled for July 25-26 (with 55 members signed up so far), and the Mid-Ohio Sports Car Course High Performance Driving Event scheduled for September (with 155 members signed up so far). Drake shared details regarding the financial successes of the track events for the ARPCA this year.

Mark next shared that, due to the closure of Pitt Race, Pittsburgh Vintage Grand Prix lost the ability to offer PVGP racers a "test and tune" day. To provide the vintage racers an opportunity to test their vintage cars before the upcoming Schenley Park races, ARPCA will host a vintage-only run group for the racers during our June 12 Nelson Ledges High Performance Driving Event. The special run group is being marketed to the PVGP racers as a "test and tune" day. So far, 14 racers have registered for the vintage-only run group.

Discussion ensued among the members in attendance pertaining to the organization's track events.

MEMBERSHIP

Suzanne next presented an update regarding the ARPCA's membership. As of April 30, ARPCA had 955 primary members and 577 affiliate members for a total of 1,532 members. Eight (8) people became ARPCA members during the month of April, and one (1) person transferred into ARPCA from another regional club. Suzanne highlighted that member Daniel Cooley celebrated his fifty (50)-year anniversary with ARPCA this past month, and that there are fifty-five (55) members celebrating anniversaries of five (5) or more years with ARPCA. There are currently twelve (12) Test Drive members and 61 PCA Junior members. This past month, the memberships for thirty-six (36) ARPCA members expired, and one (1) ARPCA member transferred their membership to a different regional club. Forty-nine (49) members renewed their membership during the month of April. Discussion ensued among the members in attendance regarding the organization's membership.

ARPCA WOMEN'S GROUP

Linda next shared updates regarding recent and upcoming events of the ARPCA Women's Group. She highlighted the success of the recent Start the Heart CPR training event, and previewed that there are already nineteen (19) ARPCA members signed up for the upcoming BadAss Styling event scheduled for June 10 at the Treesdale Cider House. Linda shared that the ARPCA Women's Group events are often accompanied by informal events coordinated by Jay for the drivers or co-pilots of the women attending the events; the informal event being planned to accompany the June 10 event will be hosted at Santo Coyote in Gibsonia, Pennsylvania.

NEW MEMBER INTRODUCTIONS

Linda next introduced new or returning members present at the meeting. Jordan introduced himself to the members, including that he joined ARPCA within the last month, drives a Porsche Macan and works as a video director and photographer; he hopes to contribute photography and videography for the ARPCA's social media pages. Dean next introduced himself to the members, including that he purchased a 2017 Porsche Cayman in the fall of 2025 and has since joined ARPCA. Dennis then introduced himself to the members, sharing that this is his second business meeting, but that he has attended many Porsche Touring Crew lunches and other ARPCA events.

OPEN FORUM

Linda opened the meeting to contributions of new business from the members. Discussion ensued among the members in attendance, including regarding a proposed pickleball event for ARPCA members.

NEXT MEETING

Linda and Matt previewed to the members that the next ARPCA business meeting will be held on June 25 at Perlora Furniture, located at 2837 Smallman Street, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15222.[1]

ADJOURNMENT

There being no further material business, the meeting was adjourned at approximately 8:05 p.m.
